

End of the year Celebration!

Dear Families,

Please join us for an end of the year celebration in honor of your child completing a successful year of preschool. We will hold this celebration on Wednesday, May 30th, 2018. It will be in the MES south Gym. Each class celebration will take place during the regular school day. All students are to arrive at normal start time. The AM celebration will be from 10:00-11:15am and the PM celebration is from 1:30pm-2:45pm. Due to space, we ask that each family limit their guest count to five people per preschool student. We will need the attached sheet completed with the five guest names and birthdays by May 15th, 2018. Only the names listed on this sheet will be allowed to enter day of the program due to space and security. Parents and family members who are attending please enter through the front office to sign in and receive your badge.
